

POSITION DESCRIPTION

Position	Kaitakawaenga (Social Worker) generic
Work Unit:	Poutini Waiora
Responsible To:	Te Kaihautu or Delegated Authority
Responsible For:	Nil

Purpose: This position exists to: Provide health social work services across the domain of primary health with focus on long term chronic conditions, co morbidity across a whanau group, mental health diagnosis with one or more significant health stressors, developmental delay for tamariki, social stressors within whanau whom have tamariki. A key objective is to work in partnership with health under the umbrella of the IFHS, community stakeholders and other relevant health areas, promote and work alongside whanau to achieve whanau ora.

This position exists to: Provide multi faceted social work services to vulnerable whanau with multiple life stressors that impact and contribute to the vulnerability of tamariki, build meaningful whanau ora plans to assist whanau to make the changes they require, in conjunction with other community social work services and Child Youth & Family to mitigate high risk situations for whanau by intensive social work, advocate and broker relevant services for, and increase access to, and use of, those services by whanau.

Vision: To empower whanau to achieve whanau ora

Mission: To build and nurture the strength of whanau through the provision of whanau ora services through Te Tai o Poutini

Values: Tikanga: The organisation and the services it delivers are underpinned by the customs and values of Te Ao Maori – Nga Taonga Tuku Iho.

Rangatiratanga: The ability to support whanau to be self-determining is paramount in all service delivery so they are able to make decisions about their own wellbeing.

Manaakitanga: All whanau are welcomed into the service and provided with the most appropriate awhi and tautoko to assist them on their journey to achieve wellness.

Whanaungatanga: The practice of whanaungatanga is an essential part of the way we engage with whanau. To enable whanau to make connections that provide a sense of identity and belonging is essential for achieving whanau ora – well being.

Wairuatanga: Wairua is an essential element of a person's wellbeing. Being spiritually connected to our natural environment, having an understanding of our self-identity and the matauranga that underpins Te Ao Maori are all considerations when working with whanau to achieve their goals and aspirations.

Last Revision: March 2019

ORGANISATIONAL CONTEXT

KEY RESULT AREAS

Is Accountable for	And is successful when
Social Work practice <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Work with whanau to ensure goals set out in their plan are based on the kaupapa of whanau ora • Assist whanau to a position where they can make effective use of their whanau and community networks to achieve their plan • Apply social work theories and models in a manner that whanau are an equal contributing partner • Undertake an ecological assessment of presenting issues, determine a mitigation plan to create safety immediately if and when required • Use visual tools to engage whanau in leading their whanau ora plan • Avoid the use of social work language when interacting with whanau rather use universal language and language that is reflective of a Maori world view • Apply social work thinking & actions to written reports and or documents • Consider the primary domain social work actions sit within and apply the relevant priorities accordingly. • Attend multi disciplinary meetings and actively contribute ensuring strong representation of whanau • Ensure a whanau led social work plan across both domains of health and multi faceted social work. • Take full advantage of clinical supervision to discuss client social work • Utilise local trainings and or workshops to assist in the development of your social work career 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Strong whanau ora plans that achieve outcomes for whanau • Community stakeholders linked in with whanau working toward the greater goals • Social Work plans are understood and key to achieving whanau ora goals • Ecological models are used as the guide for whanau ora plans • The development of safety plans mitigate immediate risks • Evidence of visual tools used to progress social work plans • Whanau ora plans are easily understood across a wide range of groups/people • Maori world views are easily identified within whanau ora plans • Written reports/documents are an example to others • Good feedback from multi disciplinary partners • Health plans clearly identify key health priorities • Multi faceted plan clearly identify the key priorities • Supervision is rewarding and helpful • Knowledge is developing and assisting the work
Health Priorities <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Understand the service deliverables and how this applies to social work practice • Ensure a good working relationship with the IFHS by liaising and spending time working out of and in that space • Identify key contacts within health to help progress whanau ora plans • Make it a priority to attend all relevant health meetings on behalf of whanau 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Whanau ora health plans include key deliverables linked to social work actions • Good feedback from the IFHS • A strong networking group established within the health arena • Good participation recorded in the relevant health meetings for whanau • Evidence of meetings/ discussions in other spaces fed back by whanau

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Encourage progression of the social work plan within the environment of whanau away from traditional meeting places (Hospitals, PHO etc.) • Utilise health pathways that are already in place to progress whanau ora plans (rural nursing, lactation advisors) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Other health pathways are included in your social work planning by way of meeting and or whanau hui
Multi Faceted Social Work <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Develop meaningful relationships with stakeholders that progresses outcomes for whanau • Utilise social work pathways (within the community) that are already in place to progress whanau ora plans • Advocate for whanau in various forums • Work hard to ensure whanau are part of all planning, rather than the planning happening without them present • Become familiar with the key areas of vulnerability for infants and children under 5 years • Source any trainings that are available that relate to multi faceted social work • Spend time networking and building strong working relationships to better outcomes for whanau 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Defined relationships outside of the health arena that progress whanau ora plans • Evidence of using other pathways, for example strengthening families or safety planning forums • Outcome of strong advocating changes the pathway for whanau by getting buy in from stakeholders • Be absolute in your stand that whanau are central to all plans about them that will come thorough by way of plans that are successful because whanau built them • Confidence talking to vulnerabilities in respect of the whanau you are working with to bring about change • Knowledge increases through access to workshops/trainings • An increased networking group that you utilise to get gains for whanau – evidenced by having them all in the room as a normal part of your work
Administration <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Complete relevant social work reports to high standard ensuring reports are critiqued before sending out side of Poutini Waiora • Ensure any reporting requirements are completed and submitted on time • Ensure that case notes are completed and recorded accurately and are representative of social work practice • Provide statistical data and/or information relating to your job as and when required by Te Kaihautu or any delegated authority • Ensure all annual leave applications are submitted at least ten days prior to the anticipated date, to allow for ample time to consider the decision. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Well respected reports that influence others • Good reporting stats that aid the integrity of the social work role • Case notes are referred to by other stakeholders • You are able to utilise stats to progress whanau ora plans • Regular breaks to refresh • When on leave your caseload is easily overseen because you are super organised • You are very responsive to administration requirements evidenced by you completing what is required earlier rather than later • You contribute to staff hui and your contribution is valued

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ensure when going on leave that your case load is left in a position it can be monitored by another social worker with any required updates provided • Ensure timesheets are completed on time • Provide any relevant administration data to the administrator when requested • Attend all team hui, case management and any other relevant meetings • Participate in all internal and external audits • Maintain confidentiality of clients and organizational information at all times. • Aim to work within the concept of ‘the cloud’ with little to no hard copies of information. • Organise your electronic files in a manner that can be easily accessed by another if required • Ensure that sensitive information in ‘the cloud’ is given the appropriate confidentiality including file protection • Come to clinical supervision organised and if agreed with any completed tasks • Buy in and actively contribute to your professional development plan with agreed SMART goals for the performance year • Be accountable by planning and using your electronic calendar, reporting in and utilising your working day wisely • Take advantage of your work cell phone to use the plan in a manner that helps progress your social work action and goals Ensure you are familiar with Poutini Waiora policies and procedures and how they apply in your role as a Kaitakawaenga	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Audits of social work avoid the angle of surprise because you know what you are doing and ensure that is captured accurately • Client work is stored safely confidentially is part of how you practice • Desk space is good with minimal clutter • Substantial recording in the cloud minimal recording on hard file • Supervision is valuable and progressive • Your professional development plan is meaningful and shows evidence of progression • You manage your work load across a working week and we always know where you are at or nearabouts • Your phone is a vital tool in achieving your outcomes for the working week You are adhere to the policies and procedures of Poutini Waiora and are confident in applying those polices in your social work role, whanau like the fact you are well informed
Other Duties Any reasonable request that benefits Poutini Waiora given by Kaihautu or a delegated authority	Requests provide added challenges to your professional development

GENERIC JOB REQUIREMENTS

Kaupapa Poutini Waiora

- Actively participate in Poutini Waiora kaupapa activities including noho marae, tikanga and te reo sessions, waiata, staff meetings etc.
- Input into the development and implementation of organisational & strategic plans
- Participate in regular supervision
- Follow organisational policies and procedures
- Contribute to a high quality performance

These responsibilities may be revised from time to time by Te Kaihautu in consultation with you

Key Performance Indicators will be applied to your professional development plan for the purpose of appraisal and review; those KPI's will be discussed with you and will be reflective of the Kaitakawaenga role

Person Specifications:

QUALIFICATIONS

Essential:

- Social Work Degree or an undergraduate degree with a post graduate social work qualification
- Provisional or full registration with the SWRB
- A non smoker
- A full drivers licence

SKILLS AND EXPERIENCE

Essential:

- Computer Literate in Microsoft office suites and experienced in coding and reporting data
- Confident in using various forms of IT, iPads etc.

Desirable:

- Knowledge of Ministry of Social Development contract specs
- Knowledge of Child, Youth & Family legislation
- Confidence working with Maori whanau
- Knowledge of the WCDHB contract specs
- Knowledge of the health priorities for Te Tai Poutini
- Understanding of the relevant legislation that impacts social work, Privacy Act etc.

PERSONAL ATTRIBUTES

- Honest & Reliable with a strong work ethic
- Punctual and organized
- A good self starter, flexible when things change and calm under pressure
- Absolutely committed to whanau reflected in your social work practice
- Solution focused with a positive outlook
- Motivated and energetic
- Committed to your own self development and well being
- Discreet with integrity